MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS

New Delhi, the 21st December 1966

G.S.R. 1988.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 18 of the Central Reserve Police Force Act, 1949, the Central Government hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Central Reserve Police Force Rules, 1955, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Central Reserve Police Force (Eighth Amendment) Rules, 1966.

(2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the official Gazette.

2. Insertion of new Chapter XV.—After the heading "Chapter XIV" and the rules 103 to 111 relating thereto, the following Chapter heading and rules shall be inserted, namely:—

"CHAPTER XV—Special provisions relating to Border Security Force"

112. Definitions and interpretation.—(1) In this Chapter unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) the expression "Border Security Force" means the Force constituted under the orders of the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs and known at the commencement of the Central Reserve Police Force (Eighth Amendment) Rules, 1966, as the Border Security Force;
- (b) "Force" means Border Security Force;
- (c) "Superior Officer" means an Officer as referred in clause (i) of rule 2 and includes,—
 - (i) an Assistant Director or a Joint Assistant Director in the Headquarters of the Force or in the Headquarters of the Inspectors General or the Deputy Inspectors General of the Force,
 - (ii) a Deputy Commandant,
 - (iii) a Senior Instructor, a Junior Instructor or a Junior Staff Officer, and
 - (iv) any other officer holding a post, equivalent to any of the posts referred to in sub-clauses (i) and (iii), in any other establishment of the Force.

(2) Any reference in this Chapter to an officer of the Army (whether serving or retired or released) shall be deemed to include a reference to any such officer of equivalent rank in the Navy or Air Force.

113. Appointment and promotion of superior officers.—(1) The posts, of,—

- (a) the Commandant of a battalion in the force;
- (b) Assistant Director; or
- (c) any other post equivalent to a post referred to in clause (a) or clause (b), at the Headquarters of the Force or the Headquarters of the Inspector General and the Deputy Inspectors General or at any other establishment of the Force, shall be filled,—
 - (i) by transfer on deputation from the rank of Lt. Colonel from the Army or the Indian Police Service (Senior Scale) Officers, or State Police officers holding posts of the Superintendent of Police or equivalent posts: or
 - (ii) by re-employment of,—
 - (a) retired or released Army officers who have held the rank of Colonel or Lt. Colonel: or
 - (b) retired Indian Police Service (Senior Scale) officers, or State Police officers who have held posts of Superintendent of Police or equivalent posts: or
 - (iii) by promotion from amongst suitable Deputy Commandants, Assistant Commandants or Joint Assistant Directors or officers holding equivalent posts in the Force.
- (2) The posts of,—
 - (a) Deputy Commandant; Assistant Commandant or Adjutant;
 - (b) Joint Assistant Director; or
 - (c) any other rank in the Force which is equivalent to the ranks in clause (a) or clause (b).

shall be filled,—

(i) by transfer on deputation from the rank of Lt. Colonel or Major from the Army or the Indian Police Service (Senior Scale) officers, or suitable State Police officers holding posts of Superintendent of Police or equivalent posts; or

(ii) by re-employment of,—

(a) retired or released Army officers who have held the rank of Lt. Colonel or Major, or

(b) retired Indian Police Service (Senior Scale) officers, or State Police Officers who have held the posts of Superintendent of Police or equivalent posts, or

(c) retired Deputy Commandant or Assistant Commandant or Adjutant or Joint Assistant Director, or

(d) retired from any other post in the Force which is equivalent to the posts specified in clause (c);

(iii) by promotion from amongst,—

(a) Assistant Superintendents of Police from States; and

(b) Deputy Superintendents of Police from States, Company Commanders, Quarter Masters or Junior Staff Officers, of the Force who have completed six years of Gazetted or Commissioned Service with a good record of service.

(3) The posts of Company Commanders, Quarter Masters and Junior Staff officers and other posts in the Force equivalent thereto shall be filled,—

(i) by transfer on deputation from the rank of Captain from the Army or Assistant Superintendent of Police or Deputy Superintendent of Police from States; or

(ii) by transfer on deputation (by promotion) of officers holding the posts of Inspector of Police or equivalent posts having held such post for a period of three years in any Central or State Police organisation; or

(iii) by promotion of Subedars (Inspectors) of the Border Security Force who have not completed the age of 50 and have held such post in an armed Police Force for a period of three years; or

(iv) by direct recruitment from amongst candidates possessing the following qualifications, namely:—

(a) must have attained the age of 19 years and must not have completed the age of 25 years on the 1st day of July of the year of recruitment;

(b) must hold a degree of a recognised University;

(c) must satisfy the following minimum physical standards, namely:—

(i) Height . . . 5'-5"

(ii) Chest . . . 32 inches (unexpanded)
34 inches (expanded)

(d) must, on selection and before appointment, obtain a health certificate in the prescribed form from a duly constituted Medical Board;

(e) must possess such other qualifications as may be prescribed by the Central Government from time to time regarding citizenship, eligibility and other matters;

(v) by re-employment of retired or released Army Officers who have held the rank of Captain or retired State Police Officers or officers of the Force who have hold the rank of a Deputy Superintendent of Police or other equivalent ranks.

(4) All promotions shall be on the basis of merit with due regard to seniority.

114. Tenure of retired or released Police officers.—The provisions of sub-rule (2) of rule 107 shall apply in relation to retired or released police officers re-employed in the Force as it applies to retired or released Army officers so re-employed.

115. Probation and confirmation.—(1) All initial appointments and promotions to a superior post in the Force shall be subject to a period of probation for two years.

(2) On completion of the period of probation the officer shall, if considered fit, be confirmed in the post in which he is appointed subject to the availability of a permanent post.

(3) The Government may extend the period of two years specified in sub-rule (1).

(4) If on the expiration of period of probation referred to in sub-rule (1) or on any extension thereof under sub-rule (3), as the case may be, the Government are of opinion that an officer is not fit for permanent appointment, or if at any time during such period of probation or extension they are satisfied that he will not be fit for permanent appointment on the expiration of such period of probation or extension, they may discharge him or, as the case may be, revert him to the post from which he was promoted or to the service in the State.

(5) Where no action is taken by the Central Government under sub-rule (2) or (3) or (4), the period after the prescribed period of probation shall be treated as extended from month to month until orders are passed by the Central Government under sub-rules (2) to (4).

(6) A probationer may be required to pass before confirmation such test including a test in Hindi as the Central Government may by order specify.

116. Application of rules to Border Security Force.—(1) The provisions of this Chapter shall apply only to the members of the Border Security Force and nothing contained in rule 105 or 106 or 108 shall apply to the member of any such Force.

(2) Save as otherwise provided in sub-rule (1) the provisions of the Central Reserve Police Rules other than this Chapter shall apply to any member of the Border Security Force as it applies to any other member of the Central Reserve Police Force".

[No. F. 3/93/66-BS-I.]

PLANNING COMMISSION

New Delhi, the 22nd December 1966

G.S.R. 2029.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules regulating the method of recruitment to the non-Secretariat posts of Economic Investigator Grade I, Information Assistant and Publicity Investigator in the Planning Commission, namely:

11. Short title and commencement.—(i) These rules may be called the Planning Commission (Economic Investigators Grade I, Information Assistants and Publicity Investigator) Recruitment Rules, 1966.

(ii) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. Application.—These rules shall apply to the posts as specified in column 1 of the Schedule annexed to these rules.

3. Number, Classification and scale of Pay.—The number of posts, their classification and the scale of pay attached thereto shall be as specified in columns 2 to 4 of the said Schedule.

4. Method of recruitment, age limit, qualifications etc.—The method of recruitment to the posts, age-limit, qualifications and other matters relating to the said posts shall be as specified in columns 5 to 13 of the Schedule aforesaid.

Provided that the maximum age limit specified in column 6 of the Schedule may, in the case of candidate belonging to Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and other special categories of persons, be relaxed in accordance with the orders of the Central Government for the time being in force.

5. Disqualifications.—(a) No person, who has more than one wife living or who, having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life-time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to the post, and

(b) No female candidate, whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for appointment to the post;

Provided that the Central Government may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for so ordering, exempt any person from the operation of this rule.

6. Liability to serve in the Defence Service.—Any person holding a degree in Engineering or equivalent qualification appointed to the post of Economic Investigator Grade I in the Planning Commission on or after the commencement of these rules, shall, if so required, be liable to serve in any Defence Service or post connected with Defence of India, for a period of not less than four years including the period spent on training, if any;

Provided that such person—

- (a) shall not be required to serve as aforesaid after the expiry of ten years from the date of appointment; and
- (b) shall not ordinarily be required to serve as aforesaid after attaining the age of forty years.

7. Power to relax.—Where the Central Government is of opinion that it is necessary or expedient to do so, it may, by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing and in consultation with the Union Public Service Commission, relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category or persons.
